Haigh's Celebrating their 2015 Centenary

Our customers at Haigh's Chocolates are Australia's oldest family owned chocolate maker, operated by the Haigh family since 1915. They pride themselves on being chocolate specialists "committed to the art of premium chocolate making from cocoa beans." So this year they have much to celebrate with 2015 being their Centenary Year. As well as commemorating the opening of the very first Haigh's Chocolates store in Adelaide 1915, 2015 also marks 50 years since they opened in Melbourne and 10 years in Sydney.

These milestones are being celebrated with the release of the "Three Cities" range, featuring the location of Haigh's flagship stores in Adelaide (Beehive Corner), Melbourne (Historic Block Arcade) and Sydney (Queen Victoria Building). To see the Haigh's team in action, you can book a factory tour on their website.
